President's Message:

Presidents message-

Memorial Day is the big start for the beaches as many people flock to our waters to cool off from the heat. Hit the sand and waters to find some treasures and be aware of lightning as June is the month we start to see some afternoon storms. First sign of thunder and lightning, get off the beach to hunt another day! Stay safe!

W. Howard Metts

May guest speaker:

Our guest speaker will be club President Howard Metts discussing metal detecting while on a Caribbean cruise. Recently Howard, Joe and other members took a cruise and brought their metal detectors with them to see what goodies they could find!

Editor's

worth:

Hello SCARC members; as you can tell by the different format for the newsletter, I am back as the newsletter editor. Please submit any/all ideas to improve this newsletter to Howard, Joe or any board member, or you can let me know, always happy to listen!

I just want to reiterate Howard's message- it's getting hot (fast) out there, stay hydrated and find some shaded areas to hunt or get cooled down in the water if you are hunting the beach. Happy Hunting.
