President's Message:

Presidents Message

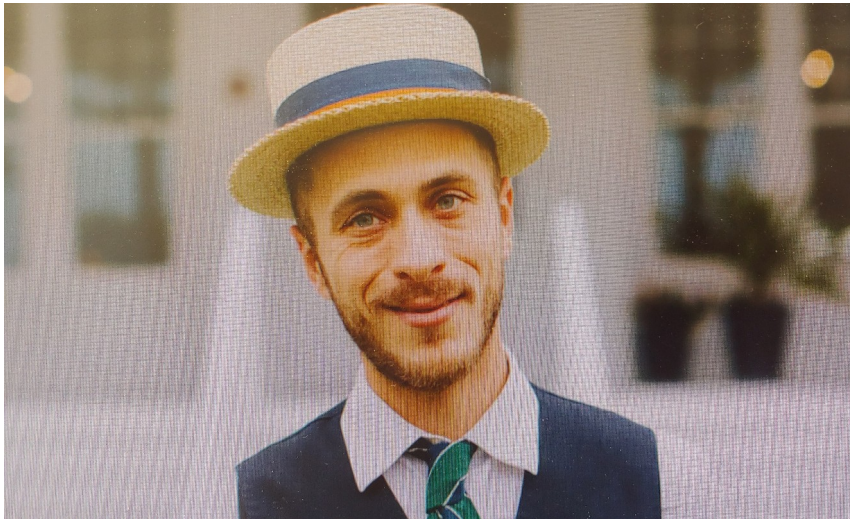

The weather has finally cooled down so get out to the beach and parks looking for your treasure. Turtle season ends the end of this month so you can use your headlamps on the beach starting in November.

Guest Speaker: Mr. Joey Vars, resident Historian for the iconic Belleview Biltmore Inn, Tampa Bay's oldest hotel. Mr. Vars is a Tampa Bay native and has been called "the person who knows more about Florida than anyone I've met."

WOW, did the temperature change just last week. It is now THE perfect weather to get out there and do some metal detecting, whether it's on the beach (where there's still LOT'S of depositors out there) or to that out of the way park, or a nice old permission! Get out there and find some great treasures!
