Editor's

worth:

Well folks, fall is starting and summer is easing on out of here, BUT... it's still hot so be careful out there hunting or you can go detecting the beach at night when it's cooler. With beach attendance slowing it's time to go to those busy parks or open areas where you are allowed to metal detect. Let's get out there and have some fun!

Rob Clarke / Editor

ps: the club is ALWAYS looking for interesting Guest Speakers, so if you have any ideas for a speaker please let Joe or Howard know!
